

The First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

This reading describes the actions of the Good Shepherd. Write or draw what He does that stands out to you.

---

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

God has invited us here today for a feast. What do you think he wants to give us? Write or draw your thoughts below.

---

The Homily

The homily is a time to reflect on the Mass readings. Listen to the homily as best you can, and while you listen you can take this time to finish your pictures or reflections from the readings. If you have any questions and are able to, write them down. Use the space below to write or draw about what you notice.

---

The Psalm: PS 23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6

Here is even more about the Good Shepherd. I wonder what it feels like to be one of His sheep. Draw or write your feelings.

This is a time when Jesus gives himself to us and we give ourselves to Him. What can we give to him this Sunday?

The Second Reading: 1 COR 15:20-26, 28

Color in the picture that matches what you hear in this reading.

The Dismissal

"Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life."

Today we celebrated a great and mighty King, but most of these readings were about sheep and shepherds. Christ is our King. What is he like as a King?

---

Solemnity of Christ the King

On your way to Mass, think of one or two things that went well this week that you want to offer thanks for at Mass.

Draw or write them here.

---

The Gospel: Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus says that every good thing we do for someone in need is a good thing we do for Him.

Who are some people in your life who have taken care of you? Who are some people you have taken care of?

---

Think of one or two things from the week that were not good or were difficult that you want to pray about at Mass. Draw or write them here.

---